

"There is a certain beauty in weaving two lives, trying to merge into one. To think beyond yourself, to feel beyond yourself, to accommodate another is also a stepping stone for the ultimate union." - Sadhguru

ELIGIBILITY

Linga Bhairavi's wedding rituals are conducted

- for couples who are not yet married and for already married couples.
- on wedding anniversaries or on the 60th or 80th birthday of the husband.

TYPES OF VIVAHAS

We offer three types of Vivahas

1. Bhuta Shuddhi Vivaha
2. Vivaha Vaibhavaa
3. Linga Bhairavi Vivaha

	Bhuta Shuddhi Vivaha	Vivaha Vaibhavaa	Linga Bhairavi Vivaha
Description	It is a form of consecration for marriages. The fundamental process is Bhuta Shuddhi, which involves refining the five elements (earth, water, air, fire, and space) within the human system. Bhuta Shuddhi offers couples the opportunity to form a deep bond on an elemental level. The nature of Bhuta Shuddhi Vivaha is such that the benefit is not only for the bride and the groom but for everyone who witnesses and engages in it. Please note - this ritual should not be conducted if the bride is pregnant.	It is a special opportunity to be married in the powerful presence of Linga Bhairavi and begin one's new life with Devi's blessings. The ritual, conducted in the sanctum, creates a unique bond between the couple and enhances their receptivity to the Devi's grace. This also includes 3 rituals <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Bhairavi Vilakku Seva</li> <li>2. Daha Nivaranam</li> <li>3. Kumkum Sarpa Seva</li> </ol>	It is a special opportunity to be married in the powerful presence of Linga Bhairavi and begin one's new life with Devi's blessings. Process	The ceremony takes place in the presence of a sacred fire (yagna), around which the couple circumambulates and offers sacred materials. Traditional Indian wedding elements, such as garland exchange, tying a thaali or mangal sutra, and applying kumkum, are incorporated. Powerful chants enhance the entire process, and the ritual is conducted by trained volunteers called Sumangalas.	The wedding takes place in the sanctum of Linga Bhairavi, where the couple exchange garlands, tie the thaali or mangal sutra, and apply kumkum. Requirements	The couple must purchase a Devi pendant to use as the thaali or mangal sutra for the bride. It should be handed over to the Vivaha team at least 5 days before the Vivaha. Isha Life offers various styles and metals for these pendants, including silver, copper, and gold. If the bride already possesses a Gold Devi pendant, it can be used for the process if desired.	If the couple wants, they can bring the thaali or mangal sutra on the wedding day itself. Previously worn thalis cannot be used for the process. Devi pendants can also be purchased and used as a thaali or a mangal sutra. Couples may also opt to use a consecrated turmeric root provided by Linga Bhairavi. The wedding may also be conducted without a thaali, if desired.	If the couple wants, they can bring the thaali or mangal sutra on the wedding day itself. Other Offerings	NA	The couple also has the opportunity to present Devi with abhishekam offerings and sit in close darshan during the process. A samarpanam offering is made for the couple at the end of the wedding. Afterwards, they receive blessings from their family and friends in Devi's presence and tie Mangalya Bala Sutras to Devi's Trishul for each other's longevity and well-being.	The couple also has the opportunity to present Devi with abhishekam offerings and sit in close darshan during the process.
